ARREST MADE IN McILLY MURDER CASE

GYPSY BLUE IS TAKEN UP AGAIN BY THE POLICE

Half Breed Said to Have Been Seen With Band Camped
Near Murder Scene.

CAPTAIN SIMPSON NOW
CHASING AFTER PARTY

Belief is Growing That a Woman
Was Connected in Some Way With the Slaying of James McNulty.

The first arrest in connection with the murder of James McNulty was made this afternoon when Captain Simpson and Detective McLean, of the plain clothes squad, took one of the members of the gypsy band, who were camped near the scene of the murder at the time it happened, into custody about 10 miles north of the city. The prisoner was taken to the station and examined by Chief Carpenter, the chief, Simpson, and McLean being closed together with him.

Gypsy Blue Resumed.
A new and most important piece of evidence was called by the police on the McNulty murder case this morning when Captain Simpson was informed that when the band of gypsies, who were camped near the scene of the murder moved away, that afternoon, with them was seen a half-breed, a description tallies with that of the man seen around the place.

Simpson at once went to work on this phase of the case himself, with the result that at one o'clock this afternoon he telephoned to the chief asking that a team of horses be sent him from North Edmonton as he felt he had evidence sufficient to warrant him going out, where the gypsies are now camped, some 10 miles north of the city.

Accordingly Chief Carpenter sent out a team. This is the best clue on which the force have had a chance to work so far. The wire from Chicago which they hoped would throw some light on the situation only gave the number of the gun and from whom it was purchased. A sporting good firm there had sold the gun to members of the Acme Coal company for a present to one of the firm's men who was leaving. He is out of the city having been away for three weeks. The man who was leaving is 210672 and it is a double barrel shot gun No. 12 bore. A strict watch will be kept on all the second hand stores to see if the same gun has been pawned recently or if there are any offers to sell it. The revolver has also been identified as belonging to a man in the east end of the city and which was stolen from his place some four weeks ago.

Chief Carpenter Out.
Last night Chief Carpenter himself took a turn in the search for the large section of the H.B.R. on horseback in the hopes that he would discover something of importance. However he refused to say anything this morning when questioned about the matter. He states that some surprising events would likely be made public at any time and that he was hourly expecting further developments.

Kills Family of Five; Then Eight Others

Also Ten Injured in Trying to Capture Crazy Teacher in Germany.

Muelhausen, Germany, Sept. 5.—A crazed teacher, named Wanner, who murdered his wife and four children at Degersheim yesterday, set fire to the village of Muelhausen in four places last night, and in a fusillade with the villagers, who tried to capture him, eight persons were shot and killed, and 10 wounded.

The maniac took refuge in a stable, where he killed all the 20 cartridges with which he had provided himself. The enraged villagers wreaked their vengeance upon him by clubbing him and stabbing him with knives and probably will die. When he entered Muelhausen, it was not known that he was a fugitive murderer. It was only after the wild scene, which had been enacted near the scene of the murder, that he was being teaching, and found the bodies of his wife and children.

CITY ENGINEER BEING RELIEVED OF STREET GANG

Portion of Construction Work Being Turned Over to Maintenance Dept.

PLAN IS NOT FAVORED
BY CHIEF ENGINEER

Mr. Latonell Recommended
That This Work Be Put Under Another Department
But Not the Maintenance.

A portion of the construction work that has formerly been handled by the city engineer is being transferred today to Dan Aldon's department. The transfer does not involve a very large portion of work, as it is a branch that Mr. Latonell recommended be placed in a separate department in the year. He does not approve of the present move, believing that it is not good business on the part of the city to put the construction and the maintenance departments under one management.

The gang being turned over today is at present employed in grading streets in different parts of the city. The appropriations for this work will also be transferred to the streets and scavenging departments.

The change will not affect any of the engineers or inspectors, as these will still be under the direction of the city engineer.

The sever and value construction will not be affected, these being the most important departments. The contracts for the work cannot be changed, as the city engineer's department is in charge of the work and that it must be carried out in accordance with the plans and to the satisfaction of the inspectors who are appointed by the city engineer.

London, Sept. 5.—Dulwich College, a famous school in a southern suburb of London, which was built in 1870 at a cost of $500,000, was set on fire in two places early today.

Empty petroleum cans were found scattered about the floors of some of the rooms where their contents had been liberally sprinkled over the flammable furnishings.

Dulwich college, known as the "College of God's Gift," has been in existence since 1619 when it was founded by Shakespeare's friend, Edward Alleyn. It provides higher school education for over 600 boys.

Rain Puts the Subway Out of Commission and Users
Rush to Elevated.

New York, Sept. 5.—Not a wheel moved in the subway between 6th street in upper Manhattan and the Brooklyn terminal during the rain hour of the work-bombing of the city this morning, resulting in one of the worst congestions in traffic the city has known.

Over three inches of rain fell during the night flooding the subway tracks to the depth of three feet or more, and nine miles of four-tracked subway were put entirely out of commission.

It was 8 o'clock before the line was cleared and then the congestion prevented anything like normal conditions. The interborough company forced all its cars with electric pumps capable of discharging 750 gallons a minute and sucked the rainwater from the tube as fast as its men could work.

At several central stations the subway users stormed the elevated trains in such numbers that the police reserves were called out to make them keep in line and take their turns.

PRESBYTERY IN ACTION AGAINST THE ORIENTALS

Westminster Body Meeting in Allowing Hindus to Have Their Wives is Favored, But Other Members of the Race are Barred.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 5.—The Westminster Presbytery, representing that denomination in Vancouver and the lower mainland, yesterday passed a long resolution as to their policy on Oriental immigration. They view with alarm the ever-increasing arrival of Orientals whose influence is felt in social, economy, and even moral conditions.

They add:
"The situation is already exceedingly serious. One in every nine of our population is an Oriental, and as a large proportion of their numbers is men, it means that one man out of every five in British Columbia is an Oriental."

"This Presbytery would therefore urge that an understanding be arrived at between our government and various governments interested to exclude Oriental laborers until the population of Orientals to Occidentals is one to 30 of the total population of British Columbia."

"In the case of Hindus already residing here, we urge they be allowed to bring in their wives provided that other members of this race will be permitted to enter Canada until the above condition is reached when the question may be re-opened."

SHIP STUCK IN ICE FOR DAYS

Whaler Karluk With Steffanson
Exploring Expedition Returns to Port Barrow.

Point Barrow, Alaska, Aug. 5.—The whaler Karluk, with the Steffanson exploring expedition arrived here yesterday having been stuck in the ice in latitude 71 degrees 15 minutes, longitude 167 degrees 15 minutes, for several days. The voyage from Port Clarence to Port Barrow was uneventful. Ice was sighted August 1st, also plenty of walrus and seals. The next day a polar bear was killed by Captain Bartlett and Bert McNeill.

A report brought to Nome August 23rd by the revenue cutter, says that the effect that the Karluk had been caught in the ice and her side stove in, probably grew from the fact that the Karluk when she was caught in the ice on August 7th. The ship suffered no damage, according to mail received in Seattle.

MURPHY MAKING LAST STAND FIGHT.

Charles Frances Murphy, erstwhile leader of Tammany Hall, the most powerful political combine in New York, whose days of power are declared to be at an end by the campaign manager of the fusion ticket, composed of republicans and independent democrats. The fight centers around the mayoralty election. Murphy's candidate is Edward E. McCall, public service commission and said to be a loyal Tammanite, while the fusion candidate is John Purroy Mitchell, a young man who, despite his continual crusade against Tammany, has succeeded in gaining many high positions in municipal elections.

The Tammany was made by Milford Aldrich, a citizen of Cooktown, who swore that he had seen Jerome playing croquet in a residential society. Jerome was taken to the jail where Thaw was confined when brought there two weeks ago. He stood in the cell for nearly an hour.

Thaw's lawyers, disclaimed any knowledge of the arrest. The Thaw hearing had in the meantime been adjourned.

Belief prevailed that it was solely due to ill feeling among the townspeople who resented the town's presence.

Arrested at Hotel.

Mr. Jerome was specifically appointed deputy attorney-general for the State of New York, is the leader of the anti-Thaw forces here.

Mr. Jerome was taken into custody at his hotel, the Cooktown House, by some newspaper men. They used a small newspaper man, with a rock in one hand and a club in the other, Thaw heard the noise and fled to the mines. He was unharmed.

One of them seized him by the shoulders while the other plunged a short sword into his abdomen. Both of them escaped.

peals and Obtains Reservations

Special Board of Inquiry Declides that the Fugitive
Must Leave Canada.

TWO SONS GIVEN
FOR THIS DECISION

Montreal, Sept. 5.—Judge Gervais today issued a writ of habeas corpus calling for the production of Harry H. Thaw in Montreal at once.

Mother to Go to Son.
Gervais, in his decision, Mrs. Mary Cooper Thaw this morning, through her secretary, secured reservations on a fast train for Montreal, New York, the party to leave here tomorrow to go to her son's aid.

Mrs. Thaw's further plans were not made known.

Thaw Ordered Deported.
Cooktown, Sept. 5.—The Thaw was ordered deported by a special board of inquiry this afternoon, but an immediate appeal was entered. Further more a restraining order, granted by a judge at Montreal, prevented his removal from quarters here.

The special board of inquiry heard two counsels, first having entered the Dominion by stealth, second, having been an inmate of an insane asylum within five years.

At the hearing today Thaw was perhaps the least disturbed person of all. He was shocked and stunned when the habeas corpus writ was sustained, but the immigration board's ruling here was so much like the court battles of old that he was untroubled except by what about his mother.

Thaw heard the news of inquiry heard two witnesses. The session was in secret.

The witnesses examined were Thaw himself, and Franklin Kennedy, deputy attorney general of New York. Thaw was the star witness in the case. He was asked one question: "Are you the man who killed Stanford?"

"On the advice of counsel, I decline to answer" said Thaw. He was then taken to a recess was called and later Mr. Kennedy was called. He identified the commitment on which Thaw was held sent to Malvern and the decrees remanding him there after his defeat in various habeas corpus proceedings in New York.

WHOLE FAMILY WAS SLEEPING IN ONE ROOM

Medical Health Officers Discover Strange Conditions Exist in City.

WILL MAKE THOROUGH INSPECTION OF HOUSES
Rooming and Boarding Establishments to Be Subjected to Rigid Inspection by the Department.

After deciding that a thorough inspection of all unsanitary premises was made throughout the city, the medical officer of health, Dr. White, accompanied by inspectors Anderson, Graham, and Harris, Messrs. A. T. Fanning and J. S. W. Fanning, visited many of the houses and shacks in Fraser Flats last night.

The conditions met with in many instances were deplorable and almost beyond description. In one instance the inspectors found a family of nine, the father, mother and seven children, living in one room. There was only one bed to accommodate the nine, and on being questioned the head of the household explained that three of the children slept on the floor, leaving four to occupy the one bed.

The inspectors found two other cases where the owners of very respectable houses had bunking space in the building for 10 men in one instance, and 11 in the other. The owner's wife in one case had her arms and face blackened up as the result of an assault made on her by one of the occupants of the house. The officers ordered the cellars vacated in both instances, otherwise they would be arrested for keeping unsanitary premises.

The Humorous Side.
The humorous side of the evening's inspection was seen at one shack where the inspectors called. In this case the head of the family asked who they represented, and why they wished to disturb him. "I'm a good fellow," said he, "I'm a laborer, and I'm in the impression that it was a depuliation that has something to do with the government."

The rickshaws that have been an eyesore to the property owners at the corner of Jasper and Nanyang avenues were also inspected last night. These were found to be in a deplorable condition and another laborer who had been made to leave them removed. The premises adjoining the Alberta Hotel accommodates 12 people in upstairs quarters that are considered by the officers who visited them as entirely unfit for habitation and are situated in the cellars of the house which is the property of one of the owners. These quarters are as well being dangerous to the adjoining residents.

Not Deal Severely.
The medical officer of health does not intend to deal severely with any of these people, although they will be held down by the department, but if these are not observed the offending parties will be dealt with as the law prescribes.

Health Inspector Anderson is in direct charge of this work which will extend over September and October as these are the months when typhoid fever is most prevalent. It is the intention of the department to thoroughly inspect all houses throughout the city which are found to be insanitary and to make them clean and healthy. Where conditions are found unsanitary the owners will be notified and the necessary steps to improve their premises. If these instructions are not carried out to the letter the offenders will be summoned to appear in court and prosecuted by the health department.

The inspectors began among that class of rooming houses known as the transient houses, where the transients are catered to, as in a number of instances cases of infectious diseases have been traced back to such premises. Generally these cases have come into the city from the construction camps in the western section of the province and from British Columbia.

GYPSY COLLEGE TAKEN UP BY THE POLICE

lead to the theory first advanced of some domestic trouble. There was a story in circulation that the murderer of John Solis, who was visited the scene of the crime picked up several articles which he thought pertained to the case, among them being a ticket cutting the holder to bed and breakfast at the place. When in which was in good preservation, had been issued some time during August and had no bearing on the case.

Yesterday afternoon the search had been narrowed down to a point where only two men are being closely looked for. The police feeling sure that if either one of these men is captured a great deal of light will be thrown on the murder. One of the men is described as being tall, weighing about 150 pounds, dressed in dark grey with rather light hair, while the other is stated to be a half breed with long dark hair, and when last seen was wearing a dark suit with black hat turned down and moccasins. This man accurately fits the description which was given by A. Graham, the collector, who saw him in that vicinity as well as that which others have told the police. It is thought that the man is a detective and was seen by members of the force on the day of the murder but has since disappeared.

Systematic Search.
A systematic search of every place where he is known to hang out was made yesterday. After that the hotels being rigorously inspected as well as public houses and shooting galleries. If it is found that the man is still in the city but is cunning enough to hide until the worst of the storm has blown over, he will be caught.

Michael O'Brien the cousin of the deceased and proprietor of the Capital Hotel, where the man was last seen, said he was out some 20 miles on a shooting trip, arrived in the city yesterday after having been told of the accident and went to see Chief Carpenter this morning. It is expected that his visit will throw some light upon the case. The body was shipped east last night.

TRANSPORTATION TO NORTH END MUST BE BETTER

Lack of Travelling Facilities Holding Back Development of Country.

RAPIDS MAKE TRAFFIC ON RIVER TOO DIFFICULT
Building of Railway to Fort McMurray Will Mean Great Increase of Trade for Entire Province.

The need for adequate transportation to Fort McMurray was emphasized by D. K. Miller, a well known traveler who accompanied J. K. Cornwall on his recent trip to the north country, who has returned to Edmonton from Vancouver.

Seen at Mr. Miller today, Mr. Miller stated that, before any development of the north country could be hoped for, adequate transportation facilities had to be provided. He stated that the present mode of rapids have to be passed, making river navigation both dangerous and expensive.

With a railway to Fort McMurray, Mr. Miller stated, Edmonton would be in an excellent position to handle the bulk of the trade which is now being taken to American ports by where which the trip to the north country is made through the Behring Straits. Above Fort McMurray the river is an excellent portage there is an excellent road, and the bulk of the trade which is now being taken to American ports by where which the trip to the north country is made through the Behring Straits.

Prayer and Rain.
This story is being told in New Haven, Conn.: When a traveling mission-ary a few days ago applied to a wealthy man for a contribution, he was told that if he would by prayer procure rain to relieve the drought, he would be rewarded with $5.00, according to the tale, the mission-ary went away and prayed, and in the end of 30 days rain fell and the $5 was paid. Held on it isn't necessary to discuss whether or not rain can be procured by prayer, but it is a pity that the story is so old.

BOARD OF TRADE INVESTS ITS RE

Secretary Fisher Writes City Commissioners Regarding Subway Across C.P.R.

The ire of the board of trade has been vented on the city commissioners in a letter from E. T. Fisher, the secretary of that organization. It is dealing with the subway across the C.P.R. and the board of trade asked for definite information in this matter that they might assist in having it approved by the board of railway commissioners at their next meeting.

The information asked for was not supplied to the board of trade, and in a letter Mr. E. T. Fisher states that it is a matter which vitally affects the commercial interests of the city rather than the citizens at large, the latter stated that it is the people who have to pay the cost of the subway and delivery several times the cost of the subway.

The letter states further that it was thought that the board of trade and some of its associated organizations could possibly be of assistance in furthering the construction of the subway with this improvement to traffic.

RIDING TWO HORSES GOING DIFFERENT DIRECTIONS AT THE SAME TIME.

While Commissioner Chalmers seems so eminently capable of taking care of his own case that he evidently needs no assistance in defense from anywhere else, there is an incontrovertible defense which might be offered, entirely aside from the merits of the case as presented by the council's charges and Mr. Chalmers' reply, which must present itself to everyone who gives the case in point a moment's consideration.

That defense is that neither Mr. Chalmers nor any individual commissioner could, under the present arrangement, be held individually responsible for either the car barns or anything else in the city's programme.

The proof that this is true is apparent at once to anyone who takes into consideration the fact that there is a proposal before the city council at the present moment to subdivide and specify the duties of the commissioners.

If any individual commissioner can be held individually responsible for the car barns or for any other distinct item of the city's business, then the duties of the commissioners have already been subdivided, and the proposal now before the city council is superfluous.

But the fact that the city council itself, while it attempts to fasten certain derelictions upon certain members of the commission board, at the same time vitiate its whole allegation by proceeding to subdivide the duties of commissioners so that responsibility can be placed upon a certain commissioner. Whether the car barns were a good job or a bad job, no individual commissioner can be singled out, under the present system, and credited or blamed. It is a matter for which all must accept responsibility, the present and previous mayor to the same extent as any other commissioner.

That is the purpose and intent and spirit of the Edmonton city charter as it at present stands. It intentionally avoids individual responsibility. There is not now, and never has been, a department of works upon the presiding officer of which the blame can be made to rest if the city fails to get value for its money in this or any other building, and there is no such thing as a department of accounting and finance to be held responsible for payments in excess of the original estimates.

The simple circumstance that the council is now proceeding to subdivide the duties of commissioners makes it plain that the mayor and every member of the council who subscribes to that proposal to subdivide recognizes that the previous spirit and intent of the charter has become unworkable and that it must be changed. This admission sweeps away at one stroke the claims of excellence for the previous provision of responsibility by a board of commissioners, and substitutes an expression of belief in personal responsibility by individual commissioners.

After this subdivision of duties has been made effective, legally and otherwise, the council may very properly hold individual commissioners responsible, as is now being attempted in the Chalmers-car barn case—but up until that has been accomplished majority aldermen cannot ride two horses going different directions at the same time, which is what they are attempting to do now.

A LOUD NOISE TO HIDE THEIR FRIGHT.

The reception which the Pointexter plan to construct the first railway in Alaska as a government enterprise is meeting at the hands of the railway corporations in United States makes the previous protestations that government railways cannot be made a success look like a monumental bluff.

Heretofore the claim has been made for private ownership that owing to superior genius and more skilful management, private ownership would invariably give better service at a cheaper price than government ownership.

The Pointexter plan is in all essential respects a challenge to private ownership. If the private owners are quite sure that there is nothing to fear from government ownership, their natural attitude would be one of joy at the prospect of meeting government ownership in Alaska and defeating it by building a railway in the same country and demonstrating by a fair test the relative merits of the two systems.

But far from this being the case, the Pointexter plan, which is to move the Panama gang up to Alaska, equipment and all, and build a road from the Coast to the Interior which will eventually be extended across the Peninsula, is bringing out the most emphatic opposition that has been evidenced by the railway interests in United States since the lined up their phalanx to fight the Panama canal. Practically every newspaper in United States with corporation leanings and every controlled politician has taken sides against Pointexter and is fighting his proposal, the fight being based on the allegation that the government is invading the domain of private capital.

The only justification for private capital in railways, or in any other franchise utility, is that private capital can serve the public better than public ownership. The unwillingness of the railway corporations in United States to accept the opportunity to test this hypothesis in Alaska makes it look as though the boasts about the superiority of private capital were very much like the small boy's whistling in the woods. Private ownership has been making a very large noise, especially with relation to railways, but it now seems that in the very country in which private ownership of railways is supposed to have scored its greatest triumphs, i.e., the United States, the noise has been to hide the fright of private capital lest it be brought face to face with public ownership.

THE NECESSITY FOR THE WESTERN OUTLET

Before the western grain has commenced to come to market, and while the only grain to go out is that left over from last year, the Montreal elevators are already congested and steamers are unloading onto scows in order to get away for the upper lakes again for new loads. Reports say that the blockade already existing cannot be cleared in less than a week.

While it is altogether unlikely that the blockade will be more than temporary, as the transportation officials could scarcely permit a blockade to exist in the face of the onrushing tide of new wheat, the incident is extremely interesting to Edmonton as showing the necessity for the Coast outlet which will be opened when the G. T. P. and C. N. R. are completed and carrying grain westward.

ACCEPT THE PROPOSAL AND GET THE MONEY

If the final outcome of the trouble which the city has had with the Kleinworts is that the city is to be compelled to accept 93 for the bond for which it might originally have had 96, the result is not by any means creditable to the mayor, to say nothing of the huge financial loss to the city.

In the very commencement the mayor made it plain that it was he who was handling the bond issue, and whatever the outcome, he must accept the responsibility.

Nevertheless, the exigencies of the situation are such that the council would be badly guided indeed to reject the latest proposal. The motto for today should be "get in the money."

JUST PARAGRAPHS

The Calgary-News-Telegram disparages Carnegie's expenditure for the Hague Peace Palace and rejoices that San Hughes is about to spend half a million dollars of good Canadian money for a drill hall in Calgary. Such a red penchant for militarism could not be satisfied with anything short of a combat in which the editor's battery would be ejecting 18-em 10-point slugs at the foe from a three-deck linotype at the rate of seven lines per minute.

The Saskatoon board of trade has asked the Dominion government to cut the tariff on autos in two. Coming at the same time as the Saskatchewan government's move to secure cheap money for farms, this proposal, if accepted, would brighten things up considerably for the Standard Oil.

The Journal declares that the election of Patterson in the Peace River country is a warning to Premier Sifton. A warning to the license department more likely to round up every last boot-legger in the north country and put them all in the pen.

The wilderness in the heart of the city generally referred to as "north of the tracks" will soon be characterized as the slaughter yard or the bloody angle, or some such euphonious characterization, unless the police get busy.

Harry K. Thaw will probably commence to appreciate the fact that he is not in New York—although he soon will be.

Brought My Stomach Back To Health

"That's Why I Recommend Nerviline"

The person who suffers from a stomach ailment, if far from a doctor or drug store, is bound to be extremely miserable. Such was the case with Mr. Johnson E. Evans, a well known farmer living near Edmonton, who writes: "My stomach got upset, I began owing to bad water. I found great pain after eating. There was swelling and much gas in my stomach, and no person could have been more miserable. Away out in the country it is not easy to get medical attention except at great cost, and I had to do without. A neighbor who heard of my condition sent me a partly filled bottle of 'Nerviline.' The first dose eased the pain in my stomach. How good that relief was I will never be able to tell. Nerviline cured me. Today our home is supplied with many bottles of Nerviline. No farmer should be without it, because if it's cramps, diarrhoea or internal pain, Nerviline is a dead sure cure. It's a straight little liquid, lumbrago, rheumatism or neuralgia, a few rubs with Nerviline cures very quickly. For these reasons I recommend Nerviline."

Never go to bed at night unless you know Nerviline is handy on the shelf; it prevents illness by curing little aches and pains at the beginning. Sold by every storekeeper and druggist. Family size 50c., trial size 25c., prepared by The Cataractose Co., Buffalo, N.Y., U.S.A.

TODAY IN DOMINION HISTORY.

When the first continental congress met in Philadelphia 139 years ago today, one of the first concerns of the delegates was to seek to quell the sympathies of the people of Canada. In trying to run with the hare and hunt with the hounds they alienated both French and English Canadians. In an address to the people of England the congress sought to attract French-Canadians to the revolutionary cause by sympathetic references to the "arbitrary rule" under which they suffered. Such references to "British tyranny" were naturally not pleasing to the Anglo-Saxons of Canada. Then the congress "galled the lion in the fire," and made bitter enemies of most French-Canadians by the statement: "Nor can we suppress our astonishment that a British parliament should ever consent to establish in that country (Canada) a religion that has denuded your island with blood and dispersed impity, history, persecution, murder and rebellion through every part of the world." Recalling this attack on their religion, the French in both Quebec and Acadie were profoundly indifferent when the colonists to the south called upon them to take up arms in defence of liberty. The second continental congress did its utmost to counteract the effects of the early and ill-considered address, with its religious denunciations, and Washington issued a special appeal to French-Canadians, but all efforts of this kind failed of their object.

Today is the 67th anniversary of the death of Baron Charles Thophaus Metcalfe, who was governor of Canada from 1843 to 1846.

TRADE PRESS.

The first distinctly and exclusively commercial newspaper in America was founded in Boston 118 years ago today, under the title of "The Boston Price-Current and Mercantile Intelligence, Commercial and Mercantile." This publication was the father of the extensive trade press which has played so important a part in the development of American business and commerce. The first commercial newspaper in England was Lloyd's List, founded in 1726, and the London Public Ledger, which was established in 1793. The first commercial journal in New York, and the oldest of the American journals of this class now published, is the New York Daily Commercial, founded in 1793. The specialized trade press is of comparatively recent growth, and has reached its full flower on this side of the Atlantic. Every business and trade now has its weekly and monthly publications, and the more important industries support daily papers.

WILL ESTABLISH PAPER FOR AGRICULTURISTS

Annual Convention of National Farmers Union Decides to Publish Agricultural Journal.

Salina, Kansas, Sept. 5.—A national official paper will be established by the National Farmers union. This has been decided at the annual convention of the organization. It was stated that the purpose of the publication would be to advance the interests of organized farmers by disseminating information regarding the progress of legislation in which the people of the rural districts are concerned.

Among other things the voters of members of congress on these effective farmers will be published. The executive committee in its report stated that the minimum price of wheat, corn, oats and barley for the home market to pay the cost of production and six per cent. on the value of farm lands in various states should be as follows:

Kansas, Nebraska and Oklahoma wheat $1.45, corn 70 cents, oats 35 cents and barley 50 cents, Illinois, Indiana and Missouri wheat $1.25, corn 65 cents, oats 30 cents and barley 50 cents; western states wheat 97 cents, corn 90 cents, oats 50 cents and barley 50 cents. The report was adopted. The meeting in 1915 will be held at San Francisco. The place for next year's convention has not been chosen.

IN THE COOL OF THE EVENING

In the cool of the evening when the low sweet wistful waken. When the laborers turn their homeward and the weary have their will. When the cooers of the roses over the forest aisles are shaken, Is it but the wind that cometh o'er the far green hill?

For they say 'tis but the sunset wind that wafts the drowsy head. Rustle all the meadow grass and bend the dewy fern. They say 'tis but the wind that bows the reeds in prayer together, And fill the shaken pools with fire along the shadowy burn.

In the beauty of the twilight, in the garden that he loveth, They have veiled their lovely vestments with the darkness of a name. 'Tis his garden, 'tis his garden, it is but the wind that moveth. No more! But O the miracle is the same.

In the cool of the evening, when the sky is an old story. Slowly dying, but remembered, eye and loved with passion still. Hush! The fading of his earnest, in soft rustling as he coucheth o'er the far green hill.

Women Jurors Make Good in the States

Chicago Judges Find Them Best in Cases that Call for Remedies Outside Jurisdiction of Court.

Chicago's women jurors are making discoveries as to how the other half lives.

The judges, too, are discovering that women are admirably adapted for jury work, especially in insane cases, because of their knowledge of women's moods, as well as their ability to fathom feminine motives more quickly than men.

Justice Owens says: "Women see situations laid open here that call for remedies outside the jurisdiction of this court. With their deep interest in philanthropic matters they will help to straighten them out. They will spread the news of what is needed among other women."

"For example, all the state institutions for the insane are overcrowded."

BETTER DRESSED THAN PARISIANS.

New York women are better informed regarding dress, and the average taste is higher here than in Paris, in the opinion of Miss Anne Goodwin, president of the American Women Artists' association, of Paris, back on a short visit to this country.

She also says: "One notices Parisian modes on the streets, but the American gift of freedom has come to the rescue and kept us free from merely slavish imitation. This strikes an artist at once in line and manner."

"Our women want to walk and not mope along, shackled by modes. No wonder the habille here died out early and natural death in our free workaday, natural life. We have a

WOULD MAKE LAWS TO PROTECT WIVES

Mayor Baxter Says Canada Needs Measure to Control Wife-Deserters.

Vancouver, Sept. 5.—Mayor Baxter, who is a barrister, told a municipal convention in Vancouver yesterday that the great need in Canada was the regulation of personal conduct. For instance, he declares there is strong need for a law that would follow a wife or husband and bring him back for punishment, just as a murderer and thief is traced down and brought to justice. He would also have a law that would force some of the women who desert their husbands and have their earnings paid to their wives. Mayor Baxter also advocates a law that would compel drunkards to have their pay checks made out to their wives.

WOMAN QUESTION UP BEFORE ACCOUNTANTS

Toronto Member Asks Convention What They Can Be Admitted to on Same Terms as Men

Winnipeg, Sept. 5.—A discussion on the subject of whether women are entitled to become chartered accountants on the same terms as men, the selection of Halifax as the city for the 1914 convention, the appointment of E. K. Knaulds, Halifax, to the position of president, and A. Shaw, of Vancouver, to that of vice-president, were reported by constituent societies of progress being made during the past year, were the features of the Dominion association of chartered accountants' convention at the Royal Alexandra hotel yesterday.

The question of women and the chartered accountants' association, brought up by J. J. Sullivan, Toronto, and eventually the convention took the cautious course of referring the matter to the council for the delegate thereon to consult with the provincial societies.

NEXT WEEK'S BILL LOOKS BEST EVER

Empire Has Lulu Glaser, and Clever Negro Impersonators.

Lulu Glaser, queen of the musical comedy stage, will appear on the Orpheum vaudeville bill at the Empire theatre the first half of next week as the headline attraction. Miss Glaser has never before been to better advantage than in her present vaudeville rôle. "First Love," in which she is assisted by Thomas B. Richards and a competent company.

To show and back flack the palm for realistic impersonations of the southern negro. None are better and more favorably known than this odd pair of entertainers, who are classed with Melville and Booth. The three Langtons provide some hilarious entertainment, which they are ably assisted by a bulky automobile, while Lulu Glaser and Lulu are seen in a vaudeville sketch which they choose to call "The Pumpkin Girl." This is a combination of singing, dancing and acrobatics. Known far and wide as "the little dynamo of vaudeville," Lulu is a member of the Wolfe family, comes in a pot-pourri of songs, character impersonations and dancing.

King's Entertainers are a troupe of very narrow minded and rabbits, four varieties of dumb animals that ordinarily have an inherent antipathy towards each other. In this case, however, all the animals and birds work together like the proverbial team. The bill is headed by Lulu Glaser, a versatile team presenting European comedy, which is too good to dilute with a dud.

The king now not only refuses to allow her to accept a tenant, but declined her offer to sell him her rights for $25,000.

"WINNING MISS" HEADLINE ACT

Will Be at Pantages With Pretty Girls and Funny Comedians.

"A Winning Miss," the musical comedy production that created such a remarkable success over two years ago, will be seen next week, as the headline attraction at the Pantages theatre. In the act are several pretty girls, who sing well and dance gracefully. The comedy is also well staged, as the promoters have gathered together several of the very best that could be had.

Proved, the winning ventriloquist, is another feature on the bill. He is a very clever performer and provides a lot of comedy during the time he is on the stage. The Collette Trio are entertainers in a musical act. Gordon and Day will be seen in a comedy bicycle novelty act and kept in the most ink and size of the delight of the audience.

BLACK VELVET SMART. Black velvet for smart functions will be the vogue for both suits and gowns, and for "afternoon" and evening wear. It will be effectively trimmed with tulle and lace fashioned into lovely pinnacles and fluffs and bordered with narrow edge of fur, either ermine, white fox, or skunk. The coats of the new coat-suits will show marked variations in length. Those for practical wear will be much shorter than the more elaborate models. The latter will extend to the knees behind, the being broken at the back waist and sharply angled in front. Vests will be a feature of both smart coats and frocks. Stimulated vests are cool and stylishly introduced even in afternoon and evening gowns.

The first woman commissioner of any city which has adopted the commission form of government is Miss Julia B. Johnson, who is city commissioner of Sacramento, Cal.

HUERTA NOT GOING TO RUN, BELIEF OF WILSON AND BRYAN

First Step Toward the Establishment of Peace in Mexico Established

ORAL ASSURANCES ARE GIVEN ADMINISTRATION

Any Scheme to Resign to be Able to Become a Candidate Will Be Considered as a Breach of Faith Before World.

Washington, Sept. 5.—President Wilson and Secretary Bryan have declared the attitude that the elimination of Huerta from the presidential race in Mexico is assured, and for the first step toward the establishment of peace in Mexico has been accomplished.

This was the authoritative declaration yesterday of administration officials, who also let it be known:

"That oral assurances had been given to the United States, charge of Huerta's intention not to be a candidate in the approaching elections."

"That the United States would consider literally the assurance in the second note of Francisco Gámez, Mexican minister of foreign affairs, who pointed out at great length that a presidential position in Mexico is ineligible to succeed himself."

"That any effort on the part of Huerta to circumvent the constitution by resigning in advance of the election in favor of another provision, president would be regarded by the United States as a breach of faith before the world."

The Washington government does not believe exactly the oral assurance given Gámez of Huerta's disavowal within the last few days that Huerta does not intend to run for the presidency. Indications of this character, however, have come to the administration from other sources. Secretary Henry L. Wilson, on his return from Mexico City having informed the committee for foreign relations, had assured him he would not be a candidate.

JAPANESE MAY SEIZE A SEAPORT IN CHINA

Full Award Demanded for the Killing of Subjects of the Mikado by Government Forces in Nanking—Public Feeling Has Reached the Fever Point and Action is Demanded.

Tokyo, Japan, Sept. 5.—The Japanese premier, Count Gombai Yamamoto, left for Nanking today to report to the emperor of Japan on the shooting of a number of Japanese subjects during the fighting between the Chinese government troops and the southern rebels in Nanking.

In his conference with his majesty the premier will decide as to the course of action to be taken by the Japanese government in the matter.

Public feeling in Japan is at fever point. Some of the newspapers demand military action and urge the occupation of a Chinese seaport by the Japanese until full award has been made by China.

Nanking is Disolated.
London, Sept. 5.—A Shanghai dispatch to the Times says:

"Nanking has been desolated by looting, which for the most part could not be prevented."

While eight Japanese, carrying the Japanese flag, fled toward their consulate some of the government forces, fired, and two of the Japanese fell dead. A third was wounded and died after reaching the consulate.

"There is much anti-Japanese feeling among the government forces. The Japanese flag hoisted over stores having no protection."

A Tokyo dispatch to the Daily Mail says:

"Owing to the alleged massacre of Japanese at Nanking when the Chinese troops captured the city, Mr. Oshi, leader of the progressive party, and other politicians, are urging occupation of Tien Tsin or some other port until China has paid compensation."

ROBERT CLARKE.

Escaped Convict, Taken in Brandon

Deputy Warden Has Been Sent After Him to Bring Him Back to Edmonton.

Word was received at the penitentiary last night that Robert Clarke, one of the convicts who escaped on July 1st, was being held at Brandon, Man.

The man had been picked up on the streets of his resemblance to the picture which was sent broadcast after the escape. He has confessed to being the man.

Clarke was sentenced to seven years for house-breaking, and had only served about nine months of his time. He is described as being 25 years of age, five feet tall with sandy complexion and a cast in his right eye. His right thumb is amputated at the first joint.

It is expected when he is brought here that some light will be thrown on the escape and the manner in which it was so cleverly planned and executed.

Deputy Warden Cummings left last night for Brandon to bring the man back to Edmonton.

Will Enforce Gold and Silver Marking Measure

Numerous Montreal Firms Have Been Prosecuted for False Trade Descriptions of Articles.

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—The proper enforcement of the gold and silver marking act is a matter which has engaged the attention of the official of the department of trade and commerce recently, and no less than eight Montreal firms have been prosecuted and fined for false trade descriptions and for violations of the act with respect to the sale of watches. A department memorandum, dealing with the matter, says, apparently the federal law respecting the gold and silver marking act has not been made special study by even some of the largest and most reputable firms in Canada, and now, as an inspector is actively engaged in enforcing the act, it is not at all unlikely that some of them may be prosecuted.

The cases, however, in Montreal were especially for false trade descriptions, and in some cases for giving grammatically which is in violation of the act. The new act passed at last session, on January 1st, has been more stringent than the act at present in force. Copies of the new act have been distributed to the trade throughout Canada.

HALF THOUSAND PEOPLE THOUGHT TO BE DROWNED

Terrific Storm Sweeps East Coast and Island of Ocracoke, North Carolina.

SMALL TOWNS ON COAST REPORT TERRIBLE LOSS

Six Masted Schooner Driven Ashore a Total Wreck—Men and Women Rescued from Sinking Vessel.

Raleigh, North Carolina, Sept. 5.—James Blades, of Newborn, one of the state's largest lumbermen, men, just back from Wilmington, N. C., declared there is a feeling of certainty that Ocracoke Island on the coast had been swept by Wednesday's hurricane and that not a living soul of the nearly 500 inhabitants of the island escaped. This belief was based on the high tide in Pamlico sound and the ocean inundation.

According to the reports which have been received here and which have not been substantiated, the property loss will run into many millions. All the telegraph wires are down and railroad traffic is paralyzed. However, unless the Ocracoke disaster is confirmed, the loss of life will not be heavy.

Morehead City, Beaufort, Newburg, Washington, Bayboro, and dozens of small towns on the coast are reported as having great losses from the fury of the gale.

Vessel Wrecked.

Norfolk, Virginia, Sept. 5.—Driven ashore by the terrific storm which swept the Virginia and Carolina coast Tuesday and Wednesday, the six-masted schooner George Wells is a total wreck off the coast of Ocracoke Island. The schooner was driven ashore Thursday.

Twenty men, two women and two boys, rescued by the life savers, are available. Details of the rescue are received here, but it is reported to be the most severe in years.

The Wells was bound to Fernandina from New York light. An unidentified schooner with only one mast standing and no signs of life on board is astern three miles north of Ocracoke Island. A British oil ship is ashore a few miles further south.

INVESTIGATE WORKING OF INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES ACT

United States Appointed Two Delegates to Inquire Into Success of Canada's Labor Measure.

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—Charles O. Wood and Frank M. Duggan, of Boston, who have been selected by Governor Ross of Massachusetts to come to Ottawa to investigate the working of the Industrial Disputes Act, arrived here this afternoon.

During their stay they will confer with P. A. Island, deputy minister of labor, J. C. Waters, president of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, and others closely related to the administration of the act. After securing such data as is available, the delegates will return to Ottawa and other places the Massachusetts commission have been there, either within the past few months, to study conditions and familiarize themselves with the events that led up to the striking and lockouts of the Massachusetts act, but upon the Canadian laborer, the employer and the general public.

Alberta University Was Admitted to Association

Alberta Big Three Holds Its Annual Meeting at Red Deer When Schedule is Drawn Up—Last Game of Season Will Occur in Edmonton October 27.

At the annual meeting of the Alberta Big Three held at Red Deer last night, representatives of the three universities were present, and the Alberta University team was admitted to the association. This year the league will be composed of the Eskimos, the Tigers and the University.

Representatives of the University team, who were present at the meeting to ask admittance, state that although their team last year did not win, the championship they have a team, this season that will make the Eskimos jump to keep ahead, and that will absolutely defeat the Tigers.

Prof. Pearson was in the chair. Deacon White and Dr. Wilson, from Edmonton, represented the Eskimos; Mr. Squibb and Dr. Mason represented the Tigers; Prof. Ottewill and Prof. Edwards were here in behalf of the University.

A schedule was drawn up which calls for six games. The first one to be played will be between the Eskimos and Tigers at Calgary on September 20th. The last game will be played between the Tigers and Eskimos in Edmonton on October 27th.

Big Three Schedule.
20—Edmonton at Calgary.
27—University at Edmonton.
October.
1—Calgary at University.
11—Edmonton at University.
18—University at Calgary.
27—Calgary at Edmonton.

(Special to The Capital by Joe Price.)
Red Deer, Sept. 5.—Although there was a very thorough discussion of questions which have disturbed the equilibrium of the Alberta Big Three, the meeting was held here last night when the schedule was drawn up and the feeling existed that the present season will be the best in the history of the game in this province.

Deacon White stirred up a hornet's nest when he voiced the sentiments of the Edmonton club to the effect that it was desirable to get referees from outside of the province to handle the season's league games because so much dissatisfaction had arisen in the past.

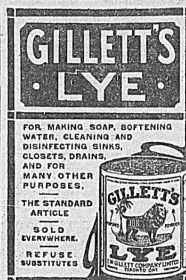

Some of the delegates took it as a very serious reflection upon the honesty of the rugby men in the province. But just when things began to get a little warm Deacon White poured oil upon the troubled waters by suggesting that the past be forgotten and that earnest efforts be made to get together this season and cut out the knocking and boasting for the best interests of the game.

Ignorance of Rules.
It was agreed that the chief trouble in the past had been caused by ignorance of the rules, both upon the part of the players and by the referees. So many varieties of rules were in existence in the east that it was little wonder that there was so little agreement and it was pointed out that with the publication of the Western Canada rule book it would be better for a more thorough understanding to be reached.

In appointing the board of referees for the season President Pearson was instructed to call a conference of the officials and have them discuss the rules and determine upon the interpretations of the disputed points. The board of referees appointed will consist of Dr. Whit Lacey, Percy Hardisty, W. N. Edwards, Rev. R. H. Pearson, Prof. Loring and H. Ritchie.

After extended discussion it was decided to admit the Alberta University team into membership in the season's division of the league. This will make three teams in the Big Three: the Edmonton Eskimos, the Alberta University and the Calgary Tigers.

The schedule for the season will start September 20 and will open in Calgary with a game between the Eskimos and Eskimos. Alberta University was given the bye because of the late opening of the school. On September 27 the Eskimos and Varsity will play in Edmonton. October 4 will see the Calgary Tigers at Edmonton playing Varsity, and on the 11th the Eskimos and Varsity will play a second game in Edmonton. On the following Saturday, October 18, Varsity plays in Calgary, and on Thanksgiving Day the Tigers and Eskimos clash in Edmonton.

The decision which was made last year in regard to the games being decided by the total number of points scored was rescinded and a ruling made that in case of tie the teams play off upon neutral grounds for the championship.

Neither point adopted chiefly for the benefit of the spectators was the decision to have every senior player in the league possess a different number, which he is to wear upon his back during every game. These numbers must be registered with the secretary of the league before the start of the season. When the draw for numbers was made the Eskimos drew from one to 20, the Tigers from 21 to 40, and the Varsity from 41 to 60.

LACHINE DEFEATS CANADIAN PACIFIC
Game Was a Surprise to Fort William Who Thought They Had It Cinched.

Fort William, Sept. 5.—A surprise was handed out to the C. P. R. football team when they were defeated this evening by the Lachine team and were outplayed throughout the game by their opponents who were strong all through.

Play started slow with end to end kicking and no advantage to either side for the first few minutes. Both teams were hindered by the heavy ground and long passes were in order. Although the C. P. R. first pressed hard and got inside the half backs, they were blocked by either Wilson or Stafford, who seemed to be in the right place when wanted. Dennis, White and Flanagan worked a baffling combination rush and were successful in going through the White took the kick that beat out End-whistle for the Lachine's first goal.

In resuming play, it was again taken to the C. P. R. end, White and Piton working a combination, and when P. Cassidy missed a kick, White made the score two to none for the Lachine team. Gibson then forced a corner on the C. P. R. but they were successful in defending their goal and half time stopped the play.

Second Half
In the beginning of the second half, the C. P. R. made a number of rushes and for a time it looked as if they were to score but they failed.

MINNEAPOLIS RACES.

Minneapolis, Sept. 5.—A combination of good weather and a fairly fast track was sufficient to permit the state fair management to stage the races yesterday afternoon. But at that they were working under rather poor conditions. The track was not in any good shape on account of the rain of the past two days.

Uhlman, 1:55, the champion trotter of the world, appeared on the track, but failed to go against the world's record. The track was too heavy. Unless adverse weather conditions make it impossible to do so Uhlman will go against the world's record Friday afternoon.
